

Formal (Credits)

All climate change based graduate degrees at the University of Cape Town, including Honours Qualifications, Masters degrees both research and taught and PhD Degrees from different departments across UCT.

1

Semi-Formal (Certificates)

All Climate Change related Online Courses, Short courses and Tailored teaching and learning opportunities that are available at UCT. These are available to all students and working professionals

3

2

Non-Formal (No Credits)

The Climate Change academy highlights the various internships and early career networks that are available for anyone wanting to start their career in any Climate Change and Development area.